BLENDED MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

Flatnöse Blended Malt Scotch Whisky is an all-malt Scotch whisky, with a good share of traditional peated Islay single malts, giving a rich peaty touch. The smokiness is balanced by hints of honey and candied citrus fruit, and it is bottled at a higher strength of 46% vol. Like the very best Scotch whiskies, it is unchill-filtered for much greater mouthfeel and persistence.

Gold Medal winner at this year's San Francisco World Spirits Competition, bottled in small batches, in a high-quality bottle with a cork enclosure, it is aimed at a more discerning customer.

Colour: light gold

Nose: initial peat smoke, over a honied background

Taste: smooth yet persistent light peat, overlapping delicatessweet notes, which in turn are complemented by touches of citrus fruit. The finish is long and delicately smoky, and ends in a gentle peated sweetness
